THE WEEK ON MAUI

A Chinese Junk is Wrecked at Huelo.

MAUI, April 25.—Wednesday evening, the 23d, the April meeting of the Makawao Literary Society took place at the residence of Manager H. P. Baldwin of Spreckelsville. The broad hall, which, in extent, resembles a large public hall, was crowded with residents from all parts of Central Maui, three trains of cars bringing people from Wailuku and Kahului from Pala, and from Paumotu. Spreckelsville, which is now prosaically termed "Camp 1," is an ideal spot for a social function as regards distance. The interior of the hall was adorned with bunting and brilliantly lighted with electricity.

The evening's program, every event of which received an enthusiastic encore, was as follows:

Piano Solo Mrs. Dora von Tempisky
Duet Mr. Dowdle and Miss Dowdle
Vocal Solo Miss Huntington
Elocutionary Potpourri
Vocal Solo Miss Coolidge
Recitation Miss Lindholm
Cornet Solo Mr. Lufkin
Magic Mirror
Vocal Solo Mr. Ault
Vocal Solo Mrs. Dora von Tempisky
"Sweetly Sings the Donkey" A Round

The "Elocutionary Potpourri," which created much amusement, was participated in by Messrs. D. C. Lindsay, J. J. Hair, W. O. Aiken, S. R. Dowdle, George Baldwin and F. A. Alexander, each gentleman in turn, declamatory tones reciting in unison different sections of poetry or prose.

Before the "Magic Mirror" stood "a bachelor seeking a wife" (W. O. Aiken), while the wizard (Dr. G. S. Aiken) conjured up thirteen apparitions of beautiful women, the Greek maid, the religious devotee, the society belle, and others.

In the first tableau the youth selects a representative of beauty and fashion, but in the second—as an old man—he chooses the type of domestic womanhood, armed with broom and dustpan. Ice cream and other refreshments were served and terminated a delightful evening.

CHINESE JUNK WRECKED.

Yesterday, the 25th, the Chinese junk belonging to Awana of Makawao was totally wrecked on the rocks at Honopo, Huelo.

On Monday, the 21st, Captain A. J. Tait and a Chinese crew were to start in the junk from Maliko for Keanae to obtain a cargo of rice. On account of adverse winds they were unable to depart until yesterday. They put in at Honopo, Huelo, in safety. In attempting to go out again, a great wave took them and drove the boat onto the rocks, smashing it into many pieces, and spilling the captain and crew into the waters, from which they safely reached the shore, suffering only from a few bruises.

For a year or two the junk has done good service in conveying rice from Awana's Keanae plantation to Maliko, Haiku.

TEACHERS' MEETING.

Monday afternoon, the 21st, twelve Government teachers met in the Makawao school house, the occasion being their regular monthly meeting. The program consisted of a lesson from "Gray's Botany" by D. D. Baldwin, and the reading of act 1 of Shakespeare's tragedy of "Julius Caesar," with introduction by F. W. Hardy. S. R. Dowdle informed the teachers of the offer of the "Tea-ths Companion" of four American flags to be awarded to schools within the district that should excel in the keeping of their grounds.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

In political circles there is already some talk of candidates for the next Legislature. The Home Rulers state that it is difficult to find suitable men to run for Legislative honors. Political gossip has it that some of the candidates desired by Republicans are Messrs. C. H. Dickey, Henry Long, John Kalua and S. Kapu; that Adam Forsyth and Rev. J. Kamakele, both of Kula, will run either on an independent or Home Rule ticket.

STRAY NOTES.

The cane at Kihel is reported as looking unusually fine.

The new mill at Huelo is doing good work. In spite of the fact that much of the cane is dry, because of age, a crop of 1500 tons is anticipated.

On Sunday, the 13th, Kula, 70 years of age, died at Makana, after a very brief illness. Kula was well known on Maui as having charge of the landing at Makana for many years from the time when Captain James McKee owned and managed Ulupalakua plantation to the present.

Miss Mary Alexander, of Oakland, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. P. Baldwin, of Spreckelsville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Baldwin, of Hanalei, returned from Honolulu today. Mr. Baldwin was a member of the Federal grand jury.

Inspector of Schools C. W. Baldwin has been spending his Easter vacation at Haiku. He returned to Hawaii this week.

Tax Collector W. O. Aiken, of Pala, had warrants served on fifteen employees of Pala plantation for non-payment of poll taxes. The matter did not come to trial as set for the 25th, inasmuch as the fifteen paid all their Government dues out of court.

Weather: April showers.

The auction sale of goods and chattels attached by James W. Pratt, the tax assessor, that belonged to Bailey's Honolulu Cycles, will take place on Thursday, May 1st. This is a postponed sale, which was to have been held last Saturday at Morgan's salesrooms.

Diamonds As an Investment

Are not usually the most profitable things to buy, but when they are constantly increasing in price, as they have been for the past three years, and give every promise of continuing, they might well be considered by you as a SAFE INVESTMENT.

BUT FEW PERFECT DIAMONDS are being found today, nearly all the rough found is very imperfect, which is the real cause of the tremendous and steady advance in price.

A PERFECT DIAMOND will therefore be of very great value in a few years, and those inclined to dispose of their perfect stones later on, will realize a handsome profit on their investment.

The most perfect diamonds have always gone to America, but the time is coming when Americans will have to be content with imperfect stones, or pay fabulous prices for the perfect.

The duties on cut diamonds imported to America are now only ten per cent, while the rough is free; thus bringing the price of diamonds about uniform the world over.

We have many fine pieces bought before the last few years, on which we have not advanced the prices; they are well worth your consideration.

We Invite Comparisons

Most of our diamonds are sold to transients, people from the East, who know what values are.

If argument were necessary, this should be the most convincing that our prices are right.
